Subject: Grabish v. City of Larkspur, Larkspur Marina POA

Jeffrey,

As discussed this morning, my firm has been retained to defend the Larkspur Marina POA in connection with the lawsuits you have filed on behalf of your clients, Alfred Grabish et al. I have just started to receive the material that's pertinent to your clients' claims, including the pleadings and relevant documents.

In order to allow time for my orientation the case, you agreed to postpone the deposition of Nelson Barry from April 3 to a date during the week of April 20. I understand that any postponement date would need to coordinate with Mr. Barry and with Kevin Gilbert, counsel for the City. Although I initially agreed upon the new Barry deposition date of April 20, I have looked again at my calendar and have a conflict on that day. How about April 22 or 23 instead?

While I catch up on the claims and lawsuit events, I will keep in mind your description of your clients' settlement proposal, and will try to evaluate promptly the ways to move forward efficiently. Thank you for your courtesy in postponing Mr. Barry's deposition. Please let me know if April 22 or 23 work for you, and my office can take care of the leg work, if you prefer.

You should advise me of any concerns.

Wally
